

HRH Princess Loulwah Al-Faisal Bin Abdulaziz

Her Royal Highness (HRH) Princess Loulwah Al-Faisal is a member of the Saudi Arabian Royal family and is involved, experienced, and dedicated to promoting women's education and social and family welfare.

Since 1994, HRH has been the President and Chair of the Board of Trustees of Al-Maharat Cognitive and Skill Development Center, Jeddah, and the Vice Chair and General Supervisor of Dar-Al-Hanan School and Effat College Board of Trustees since 1999.

From 1990 to 1999, HRH was the Assistant to Queen Effat in supervising Dar Al-Hanan School, First Private High School for Girls in the Kingdom, Jeddah. From 1997 to 1999, HRH was the Assistant to Queen Effat and Head of the Planning Committee for Effat College Project. In 1991, HRH was the Head of the Higher Women Committee to support Kuwaiti families during the Gulf War.

Over the past three years, HRH has given various presentations on Saudi Arabia including one at a recent event in Paris. She was the keynote speaker at the London Middle East Institute Conference held at The London School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) where she spoke on redefining roles for women in the GCC, and at the Jeddah Economic Forum in 2003. She participated in the ninth annual model school conferences organized by the International Center for Leadership in Education – Washington, D.C.

HRH is a Board member in King Faisal Foundation, Riyadh. Since 1970, HRH has been a member in Al-Nahdah Philanthropic Society for Women, Riyadh.

HRH pursued her high school education at the Switzerland Finishing School.